Perhaps you are a trained medical professional, but you have never taken that skill to a third-world country. You can be used of God anywhere.

Before you even say, "My spouse won't let me go," or "My mother needs my care," etc., talk to God first. Understand where God wants you, and He will provide a way, even if it is a change of heart on your part. Be fearless, have faith to step outside your comfort zone. What skills would you be able to provide in this environment of need? Please explain in the lines provided what skills you would be able to provide in this environment of need.
